Consent to Publish

SIAM (“Publisher”) requires Authors of articles in SIAM publications to provide a formal written Consent to Publish. The Author must sign the agreement except, in the case of “work-for-hire”, when the Author's employer may sign as the party that has the right to grant rights to the Publisher. If there are multiple Authors of the material governed by this document, the term “Author” as used here refers to each and all of them, jointly and severally¹.

Title of Contribution (“Work”): _____

Authors (in order): _____

Name of Journal: _____

Manuscript number: _____

1. Author's Warranty

By signing this Consent, the Author warrants all of the following: The Work has not been published before in any form except as a preprint, unless explicitly noted as a footnote to the title. The Work is not being concurrently submitted to and is not under consideration by another publisher. The persons listed above as authors are listed in the proper order, no author entitled to credit has been omitted, and there are no other unnamed authors. The Author has the right to make the grants made to the Publisher complete and unencumbered. The Author also warrants that the Work does not libel anyone, violate anyone’s privacy or publicity rights, infringe anyone’s copyright, trademark, trade secrets, or otherwise violate anyone’s statutory or common law rights.

2. Author's Rights

- A1. The Author may reproduce and distribute the Work (including derivative works) in connection with the Author's teaching, technical collaborations, conference presentations, lectures, or other scholarly works and professional activities as well as to the extent the fair use provisions of the U.S. Copyright Act permit. If the copyright is granted to the Publisher, then the proper notice of the Publisher's copyright should be provided.
- A2. The Author may post the final draft of the Work, as it exists immediately prior to editing and production by the Publisher, on noncommercial pre-print servers like arXiv.org.
- A3. The Author may post the final published version of the Work on the Author's personal web site and on the web server of the Author's institution, provided that proper notice of the Publisher's copyright is included and that no separate or additional fees are collected for access to or distribution of the work.

3. Publisher's Rights

Even if the Author does not transfer Copyright to the Publisher, the Author grants the Publisher the following rights in perpetuity.

- P1. The Publisher has unlimited rights throughout the world to publish and distribute the final version of the Work in any form and in all media now known or hereafter discovered.
- P2. The Publisher has unlimited rights throughout the world to translate the final version of the Work and exercise all rights in all media in the resulting translations.
- P3. The Publisher has unlimited rights throughout the world to transfer or sublicense the foregoing rights described in paragraphs (P1) and (P2), in whole or in part, to third parties.
- P4. The Publisher has unlimited rights throughout the world to accept and retain payment for the rights described in paragraphs (P1), (P2), and (P3).
- P5. The Publisher has exclusive first publication rights in the English language, but the exclusivity will expire if the Work is not published within three years of the date this Consent is signed.
- P6. The Publisher has the exclusive right to reproduce, distribute, display, and transmit copies of the final version of the Work, and to authorize others to do so, subject only to paragraph (A3) above.

4. Transfer of Copyright to the Publisher

SIAM strongly recommends this option. This transfer of copyright provides SIAM the legal basis not only to publish and to distribute the work, but also to pursue infringements of copyright (such as plagiarism and other forms of unauthorized use) and to grant permissions for the legitimate uses of the work by third parties. This option should not be selected if the work was prepared by a government office or employee as part of his or her official duties.

- By selecting the box at left, the Author hereby irrevocably assigns, conveys and transfers the copyright to the Work to the Publisher. The Publisher shall have sole rights of distribution and/or publication of the work in all forms and media, throughout the world, except for those rights given to the Author in Section 2.

- By selecting the box at left, the Author DOES NOT assign, convey and transfer the copyright to the Work to the Publisher. Please list in whose name copyright should appear here: _____

Proper notice of Publication and Copyright

In any authorized reproduction or duplication of the work, in whole or in part, by the Author or an entity as permitted herein, the original publication must be properly credited in the following manner “First Published in [Publication] in [volume and number, or year], published by the Society for Industrial and Applied Mathematics (SIAM)” and the copyright notice as stated in the article itself (e.g., “Copyright © by SIAM. Unauthorized reproduction of this article is prohibited.”) must be placed on all copies.

5. Open Access

SIAM charges a one-time fee of $2500 for this option. Once payment is received, the article will be placed into open access. The Publisher will not charge any fees for access to the final published version of the Work, provided the author chooses this option and pays the Article Processing Charge (APC).

- By selecting the box at left, the Author chooses the open access option and licenses SIAM to publish the Work under the Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International (CC BY) License (<http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by/4.0/>)². The copyright is still held by SIAM or other entity as specified in Section 4. The Author agrees to pay the APC of $2,500.

6. Signatures

This form is to be signed by the Author or, in the case of “work-made-for-hire,” by the employer. If each author’s signature does not appear below, the signing author represents that he/she is authorized to execute this agreement for and on behalf of all the authors.
